Dear Costco Member,

Our records indicate that you purchased ITM 521712 9 PC Solid Wood Dining Set between December 15th, 2015 and January 31st, 2016. This product included a dining table along with eight dining chairs.

It was stated on the carton labels that both the table and chairs were "mango-wood construction". The correct description should have stated that the table only is "mango-wood construction" and the chair is "hardwood construction."

Although the chairs are constructed from solid wood, we sincerely apologize for our inadvertent error on the label.
